

Your Name

name@email.com
123-456-7890
Denver, CO (KBJC)

Education & Certifications

BS Aviation and Aerospace Science
Metropolitan State University of Denver | Denver CO

Graduated May 2022

Commercial Pilot Certificate

Ratings/Endorsements: *Single Engine, Multi Engine, Instrument, Complex, Tailwheel
Eligible for Restricted ATP upon reaching 1,000 hours total time as per FAR 61.160(b)

Flight Instructor Certificate (current)

Ratings: *Single Engine, Multi Engine, Instrument

First Class Medical + Valid US Passport

Flight Experience <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● 320 Hours TT / 250 PIC / 10 Multi</li><li>● 145 Cross Country</li><li>● 35 Actual Instrument</li><li>● 50 Night</li><li>● 15 Dual Given</li></ul>	Aircraft <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Cessna 172: 205 hours</li><li>● Piper Arrow: 100 hours</li><li>● Piper Seminole: 10 hours</li><li>● Piper Cub: 5 hours</li></ul>
---	---

Notable Flight Experience

- Flight training completed in the Denver, CO area dealing with high density altitudes, congested Class B airspace, winter weather, and daily thunderstorms in the summer.
- A 25-hour, 2300nm cross country flight in a Cessna 172 from KSMF in California to KBCT in Florida

Work Experience

Metropolitan State University of Denver – Flight Instructor

April 2022 - Present

- Provides ground and flight instruction to primary and advanced students in Cessna and Piper aircraft under part 141 and part 61
- Mentors students in career development tracks

United Airlines - Flight Training Center Intern

January 2021-March 2021

- Identified simulator scheduling errors, leading to a 4% increase in scheduling efficiency
- Assisted in verifying currency of all training materials to ensure compliance with FARs
- Supported training personnel and company pilots by assisting in training center administrative duties

Signature Flight Support – Line Operations Supervisor

October 2020 - April 2022

- Oversaw all aspects of evening operations at the FBO
- Developed new training process for line operation new hires
- Negotiated increased compensation for line staff, resulting in a 7% pay raise for all line personnel